Kitty Hawk, N. C.
Memorial to Wilbur and Orville Wright for airplane flight at Kill Devil Hills.
Preamble.
Vol. 44, p. 1264.

Congressional committee to attend exercises of unveiling thereof.

CHAP. 20.—Joint Resolution To appoint a congressional committee to attend the exercises celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the first airplane flight made by Wilbur and Orville Wright on December 17, 1903, at Kill Devil Hills, Kitty Hawk, North Carolina.

Whereas on December 17, 1903, Wilbur and Orville Wright astounded the world by making the first successful airplane flight at Kill Devil Hills, Kitty Hawk, North Carolina; and

Whereas the Congress of the United States has passed an Act authorizing the erection of a memorial at Kitty Hawk, North Carolina, to commemorate this great epoch in history, the corner stone of which is to be laid on December 17, 1928, the twenty-fifth anniversary of the first flight; and

Whereas the delegates attending the International Aeronautical Conference called by the President in Washington will attend in a body the exercises to be held at Kitty Hawk, and the National Aeronautic Association will unveil a tablet to commemorate same; Orville Wright, the surviving brother, being the guest of honor; and

Whereas it is both fitting as well as the desire of the Congress to be represented on said occasion: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That a committee composed of six Members of the House of Representatives and three Members of the Senate shall be appointed by the Presiding Officer of each House to attend said celebration at Kitty Hawk on December 17, 1928, the necessary expenses of said committee to be paid out of the contingent funds of the House and Senate.
